EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

I am an extremely driven individual who's competitive drive comes from supporting my family and who is interested in working for a company who invests in its employees. I am driven by competition and work well in a teamwork environment but also enjoy personal challenges. Please view me as an incredibly driven individual who seeks to improve every day and strives to meet company goals/quotas.

EXPERIENCE

Garrett and Company October 2020 - Present

As a part time sales representative for Garrett and company my mission is to help cities find the best playground for space requirements and budget. My responsibility is to find ways to market our product line in different cities, private home companies, elementaries, etc. As we provide playground equipment for these cities my main focus is finding something they are looking for to meet cities needs or desires.

TruHearing Hearing Consultant Job Duties Draper, UT Oct 2018 – Present

At Truhearing my main role is taking inbound and outbound calls to assist customers by making hearing health care more affordable. After going over what Truhearing has to offer, I then schedule an appointment with a receptionist. Before and after their appointments I will follow up with them to see how everything went with the provider to ensure a positive customer experience. As a daily responsibility I want to make sure my customers are satisfied with our product to benefit their lives.
